DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the switch disposed in at least one of the first and second levers (clm 4) must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 3682

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

4. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The specification, while enabling for switches to be disposed in the handle, does not disclose how or where these switches are to be located. How are the switches attached to the handle, where are the wires and what kind of switches are being used?

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is unclear as to what is meant by the phrase "...in a proximate parallel relationship." What constitutes something being "proximate parallel"? Are the levers parallel or not?

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3682

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claims 4 and 6, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Van Rossem et al. (US Pat. 4,094,209).

Van Rossem et al (US Pat. 4,094,209) discloses a control device comprising a first movable (from an above perspective) operating lever 20/22, a second movable (from an above perspective) operating lever 20/22 (fig. 3) disposed in a parallel relationship with the first lever and movable in the opposite direction (C3/L32-51); at least one switch disposed on at least one of the first and second levers (the knob 22 is being viewed as a switch since that is what the operator moves to actuate the lever).

9. Claims 4 and 6, as best understood, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Japanese Pat. 5-75923.

Japanese Pat. 5-75923 a control device comprising a first movable (from an above perspective) operating lever 7, a second movable (from an above perspective) operating lever 8 disposed in a parallel relationship with the first lever.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments filed August 31, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to applicant's argument that the references do not disclose that the levers set acceleration, tractive power and braking, a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. The prior art structure of both references are capable of being used in to set acceleration, tractive power and braking.

Conclusion

All of the prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
